DEAR SOUTHERNER .- I write again, though I have but few items of news that will interest your many readers. The political issues of the day are all the go through this vicinity. Much enthusiasm has been aroused in behalf of the comming election, and with the invincible Tilden, to head our ticket who two years since broke the ranks of the corrupt Radical party of the great State of New York, and the incomparable Statesman Vance, for Governor of North Carolina, whose very name strikes consternation in the ranks of the Republican party, we may rest assured, of victory. I am glad to report that Old Nash is being thoroughley canvassed, by a number of able and patriotic speakers, such as Capt. Sam. Williams, Ben.
